FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 1, 1862.

Oregon State Fair,

To be held at Salem, commencing on the last Tuesday of September.

After wiping out, in a good degree, secessionism in Oregon, its people can very properly turn their attention to the advancement of the great industrial interest of the State—ITS AGRICULTURE.

At this day the benefits resulting from well organized and efficient agricultural societies, are generally acknowledged. In the Eastern States, the Legislatures grant from the State Treasuries means to sustain these institutions, and there it is conceded that every dollar thus given returns twenty fold to the Government. Besides the great benefits which such liberality confers on the people, it rapidly, by increasing the value of property, enriches the State. The condition of Agriculture, in all its branches, has been greatly advanced in the Eastern States, by means of associated effort in Agricultural Societies.

The Agricultural Society of this State has been in existence some three years. The first State Fair was held in Clackamas county, last Fall; and under many obstacles and discouragements, resulted satisfactorily. It was manifest at that Fair, that THE PEOPLE were interested in the exhibition; that they left the Fair impressed with the advantages which would result to the State from the continuance of annual Fairs; and the sentiment seemed to be general that the second Fair would be more extensively patronized than the first.

It is certain that if farming is to succeed as a remunerating employment in Oregon, our farmers must take advantage of the best modes of cultivation—of the best varieties of stock—of the best agricultural machinery—and they must become imbued with the importance of their profession as farmers—of the necessity of mind working with muscle in the performance of agricultural duties—and the sentiment must go forth that the profession of farmer acknowledges no superior.

We shall, as we have time, review the PREMIUM LIST for the coming Fair; and now commence with stock—CATTLE.

The Short Horned Durham cattle seem to be the most popular breed among our raisers of improved stock. Its advantages over most other breeds are, that it sooner arrives at maturity; makes larger cattle, and furnishes very superior beef! Some families of the Durham are good milkers, but this character does not belong to the whole stock.

The Premium List offers the following premiums for Short Horned Durham cattle:

Class I.—Cattle.
No. 1.—Short Horns.

		1st prem.	2d do.
Best bull,	3 yrs old and upward	$10	$5
"	2 " "	7	3
"	1 " "	3	2
"	calf	3	2
Best cow,	3 yrs old and upward	10	5
"	2 " "	5	3
Best heifer,	1 yr old	3	2
"	calf	3	2

The same premiums are offered for Devons, Herefords, Ayershires and Alderneys. There were no cattle of those breeds exhibited at the Fair last Fall. It is all important in the exhibition of thorough-bred stock, that their pedigrees be furnished. When a thorough-bred animal leaves the Fair grounds with a premium, the owner should carry with him reliable evidence of the purity of its blood.

The Premium List next presents the premiums offered for graded stock—various crosses of cattle—as follows:

No. 6.—Graded cattle (cross breeds.)

		1st prem.	2d do.
Best bull,	3 yrs old and upward	$5	3
"	2 " "	3	2
"	1 " "	2	1
"	calf	2	1
Best cow,	3 yrs old and upward	5	3
"	2 " "	3	2
Best heifer,	1 yr old	2	1
"	calf	2	1
Best milch cow		5	2

In the Eastern States premiums for graded bulls are rarely offered; and it is for this cause: The progeny of graded bulls is not certain to be an improvement. It often runs back to the old stock, and is no better than common stock. Graded bulls may be used when no better can be had.

In this connection we may state, that graded animals are sometimes better in appearance—handsome, and larger than their improved sires or dams. The uncertainty in regard to the perpetuation of improvement by them has led to their disuse. Unquestionably great advantages result from raising graded over the common stock. The improvement the Society aim at in stock is to prove it the highest degree of excellence.

The Society very properly offer premiums for working oxen:

No. 7.—Working Oxen.

		1st prem.	2d do.
Best pair,	4 yrs old and upward	$10	$5
Best pair,	3 " "	6	4
Best steer,	2 " "	5	3
"	1 " "	3	2
Best pair,	1, 2 or 3 yrs old trained by boy under sixteen years old	5	3

At Eastern Agricultural Fairs there is great competition in working cattle; and no more pleasant sight can be had than to see the boy carry off his premium for his well trained steers.

Oregon farmers can exhibit fat cattle, if they choose. We do not, however, too often see them. We believe it will pay farmers all the time to bring to market fat cattle—especially will it do this in the fall, winter and spring. The last season ought to admonish farmers of the necessity of providing means for stall feeding their cattle; and we may say, that those who hereafter do this will be well paid for their foresight.

No. 8.—Fat Cattle.

		1st prem.	2d do.
Best fat ox,	4 yrs old or upward	$8	$4
Best fat steer,	3 yrs old	4	2
"	2 "	3	2
Best fat heifer,	3 yrs old	4	2
"	2 "	3	2

In the sweepstakes all cattle may be entered. This is the only case in which cattle can be entered for two premiums.

No. 9.—Sweepstakes.

	1st prem.	2d do.
Best bull of any breed	$15	$10
Best cow " "	10	5

In a subsequent paper we shall notice the premiums offered for horses and mules.

RETURNED. Hon. J. E. Wyche, Associate Justice of Washington Territory, returned to Vancouver, yesterday, from a trip to Florence City, and the mining regions of Salmon river. The Judge looks well and hearty, and doubtless enjoyed the sight very well.

The Judge gives a favorable report of the Salmon mines. Says he found the mines richer and more extensive than he anticipated, and that thousands came away disappointed, as there were not good claims enough for the miners there, but that the mines were rich.

The Judge does not agree with the opinion advanced by some that the Salmon mines will be worked out this season, but says he thinks more dust will be taken out there next season than this, as many of the claims were but fairly opened for this season's work, especially on State and Meadow creeks. The Judge bases this opinion on his own observations, and on the opinion expressed by old miners, and says that the miners who have worked the most in the mines have the most faith in them.

The dust sent by the Express Co. is no criterion of the yield of the mines, as the miners keep the dust in their cabins till they are ready to leave, and then come out in squads. He mentions the fact that four miners who came out with him had about 200 pounds in dust with them, and that more dust is taken out and brought away from the mines than he anticipated.

New diggings have been struck on Salmon river bars, and on South Fork of Clearwater, and about 70 miles on the South side of Salmon river, and on White Lead creek, and at other points. In some of these places miners are making from $4 to $12 per day, and the Judge says experienced miners who have prospected largely, think new diggings will be found that will pay rich.

The Judge seems pleased with his trip, and pleased with the country and the people, and says the upper country is rich in minerals and has many fine valleys, and is unsurpassed in the beauty and grandeur of its scenery. He thinks the tide of emigration will continue to set in there, and that in 12 months from this time, a new and populous State will arise on the Pacific Coast and knock for admission into the Union.

Should Commissioned Officers march without Stripes.

CAMP DE LA TOUR, Palouse Landing,
Snake River, July 21st, 1862.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

If you please, I would protest against commissioned officers marching without stripes. Lieut. Porter, our regimental Quartermaster, sent his Agent, Mr. Sturtevant, and two private soldiers and myself, over here from Fort Walla Walla to take charge of Government freight landed here and forward it to Fort Colville. Major Curtis and his command came in to-day from Fort Colville. I had heard of Major Curtis and his ability to hoist any man out of Government employ that wouldn't take the oath of allegiance; and I wanted to see him. There were two commissioned officers breakfasting in the mess tent with Mr. Sturtevant; one quite a large man. A Colville teamster, with two dust-stained and weather-bronzed gentlemen, were reclining in a sleeping tent. I entered in an impudent, off-hand manner, took a seat between the two strangers, and asked if the large man in the mess tent was Major Curtis. No, said the stranger on my left, with something peculiar in his countenance, at the same time pointing to the stranger on my right: "This is Major Curtis." I was taken by surprise, and didn't rise on the moment and show the proper respect due a superior officer, by saluting. "Are you a soldier?" said the left-hand stranger. "Yes; I am a Corporal." "Well don't you know it is wrong to sit alongside of the commanding officer?" I was silent for a moment; then turning to my questioner, and glancing at his common hat, blouse, and pants, I couldn't see even a Corporal's stripes, and as a matter of course I took him to be a private soldier; I thought that he was either putting on airs or joking, and that I was as good as him any way, and I answered by asking, "What are you?" "I am a commissioned officer; now, you go out of this tent." I elevated myself just fourteen feet and a-half, lacking two inches and three quarters, exactly, and sprang out of the tent in an un-Corporal-like manner; and in my hurry to display my agility before the Major and a commissioned officer, I forgot my hat. I returned to the tent door, brought my hand to the place that always suits an officer, and said that I had unintentionally run away from my hat. "Oh! that's all right," said the officer. I picked up my hat, that unfortunate hat—the same that got me into the row with Anderson—and asked the officer if he would be so good as to speak with me a moment. "Oh, certainly." I asked pardon; said that I didn't know they were officers; that my Captain had recommended me as a good soldier; that now I would be sorry to lose the name; and that I would yet see the glorious old flag—the Stars and Stripes—floating from the headquarters of a victorious army. Oh, it was all right; he knew I was a good soldier; it wasn't that—no, it wasn't that. And I knew it all the time, but it was necessary under the circumstances, to make an apology—say something nice.

Now, aside from all this, I would like to know who but God Almighty can tell a commissioned officer from a common teamster or soldier, when both parties are dressed precisely alike, stained and covered with dust, weather-bronzed, and all mixed up together? Why, the Major's pants were half buckskin, and half wasn't; his hat was Horace Greeley's old one, all slouched over his eyes to protect him from the sun; his blouse was quite a common one. But when the steamboat came down, and the Major buckled on his sword and raised his hat rim, I knew that he was no ordinary man.

Respectfully,
JOHN P. HERTON,
1st Corporal Co. B, 1st Reg. O. M. V.'s.

An old Yorkshireman being informed by a betting acquaintance that "his friend the captain" would obligingly hold the stakes, the canny Northerner replied, "Ay, ay, that's all very well, but who's t' hauld t' captain?"

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin Book Store, and at Charles Barrett's, Front street.

POUND MASTER.—Would it not be well for our City Council to pass an ordinance to restrain the running at large of so many stray and loose dogs about our streets. It should be made the duty of those who will have dogs about their premises, to keep them within proper bounds, and if not so kept, have them impounded, or well-pounded, we don't care which, and if not called for within 24 hours, let them go the way of all flesh, (except that which makes sausage meet.) Warm weather and "dog days," are now on hand, therefore, prudence would dictate timely preventives against hydrophobia and its dreadful consequences. Look out for mad-dogs! We have seen more than a score of these filthy, thievish, suspicious looking curs perambulating round the city, fit subjects for any kind of mischief.

BEFORE JUSTICE BARR.—July 30th—I. Voit made complaint against E. L. Taylor for assault and battery, committed last Sunday in Brooklyn. Defendant arrested, tried, and fined $10 and costs.

July 31st.—Charles Smith vs. Henry Gants, for assault and battery. Change of venue taken and case sent to Levi Anderson, Justice of Peace, North Portland Precinct.

BEFORE JUSTICE ANDERSON.—In the case of Charles Smith complainant against Henry Gants, for assault and battery, the defendant was fined $10 and costs.

ARRIVED.—The Wilson G. Hunt arrived yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the Cascades, making by far the best time that has been made by any other steamer on this line, and her gentlemenly officers are making the Hunt deservedly the most popular boat on the river. She brought no later news from the mines, and but few passengers, as there was no connection beyond the Dalles.

LIVELY.—Our city presented quite a lively appearance yesterday, more so than for several days past. Business seemed quite brisk, and improvements rapidly progressing.

A RARE DISH.—We saw yesterday evening, at the Metropolis Hotel, a fine lot of fresh mountain trout, of the real genuine quality, and our mouth "yerned" as we reflected what a nice treat the patrons of that excellent hotel would enjoy; and thanks to the kindness of the good natured proprietors, we shall avail ourself of the invitation to come and partake thereof and therewith.

BRICKS.—Messrs. Thornally & Simpson have just completed the largest kiln of bricks every manufactured in this city, and offer them for sale at reasonable rates. See advertisement.

DELINQUENTS, ATTEND!—Take warning, all ye forgetful city tax payers, for Collector McCoy is coming after you with a sharp stick. Now, we know Mc. would not hurt a hair on your head, as a kinder-hearted man does not exists, that is, if you fork over "imejently," if not a little sooner; but if you dont—wo betide you,—that's all.

The United States Collector of Puget Sound, Washington Territory District, arrived at San Francisco July 24th, from Washington D. C., and brings one million dollars of Government funds to disburse to officers on this Coast.

Government has adopted the proposition to increase revenue by reservations and sales of town sites on public lands. In anticipation of this legislation the President ordered a reservation for public purposes of all the lands fronting on and in the vicinity of the harbor of Port Angeles. This order bears date June 18th, and the Territorial land offices have already received directions to see that the reservation, including a mile square for military purposes, is respected.

The steam revenue cutter Shubrick has been transferred to Puget Sound.

A good anecdote is told of one of the Connecticut boys. While in conversation with a rebel, after the capture of Fort Pulaski, the latter said: "At least, with all our faults, we have never made wooden nutmegs." The Yankee, a very demure specimen, immediately replied: "We do not make them of wood any longer;" and pointing to one of the big projectiles lying near, which had breached the fort, added quietly, "we make them now of iron." Secesh subsided.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup is the Greatest Panacea of the Age, for all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, &c., &c. It is agreeable to the taste, soothing, [illegible], strengthing; safe, simple and effectual far beyond any other preparation.

Eastern News

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The following order has just been published:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, July 11.

Ordered, that Major General H[illegible] be assigned to the command of the whole land forces of the United States [illegible] General in Chief, and that he repair to this Capital as soon as he can with safety to [illegible] operations within the Department [illegible] under his special charge.

[Signed] ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

CAIRO, July 19.—Two [illegible] Indiana, acted as [illegible] raid upon that place. After [illegible] recrossed both of these [illegible] Federal Lieutenant.

Covington and Cynthiana [illegible] dered to the rebels on Thursday [illegible] One company from Newport was [illegible] captured. Information [illegible] reliable says Morgan's men number [illegible] Soldiers of the 78th Ohio Regiment just returned to Boyd's Station from Cynthiana report that the killed and wounded on both sides will reach 100.

EVANSVILLE, (Ind.) July 19.—The [illegible] of Henderson Kentucky and Newburg Indiana is said to have [illegible] sympathizers of the immediate vicinity of those places. No damage was done to property. A small number of arms and six soldiers were captured at both places.

CINCINNATI, July 19.—Pursuant to instructions received from the War Department Lieut Col Burbank of the Thirtieth Infantry assumed military command of this city. As soon as this fact was published public excitement visibly subsided.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—A deputation of Senators called upon the President yesterday and made an address in favor of a vigorous war policy. President Lincoln assured them that their wishes would be fully carried out.

General Pope has issued orders that the forces of his department shall subsist on the enemy, taking property where needed [illegible] and regular form, giving receipt therefor to be paid for when the war is over upon proper vouchers of loyalty. Baggage and the usual incumbrance of an army are to be dispensed with as far as possible. Troops are to move promptly and within the designated time.—Citizens of the Shenandoah Valley are to be held responsible for any outrages such as murdering straggling soldiers, cutting telegraph wires, tearing up railroad track, burning bridges, or otherwise interfering with the means of communication of the army.

CINCINNATI, July 19.—The rebel raid into Indiana and the threatening aspect of affairs in Kentucky created considerable alarm in this city yesterday. It was believed that an expedition against this city was being organized on the south side of the river. Many persons, strongly impressed with this belief, sent off their specie at night. The excitement is still high, but the people are more temperate than in the morning. After reasoning among themselves, they seem to be satisfied that Morgan's men will hardly venture to the river very near Cincinnati. Covington and Newport were much more intensely excited than this city. The people of the former place anticipated a speedy attack. Serious preparations were made and Secession sympathizers arrested.

NEW YORK, July 23d.—A letter from McClellan's army dated 20th, says: Two deserters report that the main force of the rebel army is located on a bluff near Tr[illegible] Hill, and on the opposite bank of the Chickahominy, on Grant's Hill. They estimate the rebel force at 190,000. The rebels don't anticipate any attack from us on this side of the James river, but are making preparations to resist any that may be made on Petersburg or Richmond from the south side of the river.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—General Dix acting for the United States, and General Hill, acting for the rebels, have made arrangements for an immediate and general exchange of prisoners.

There is great repugnance in official circles to the idea of drafting,—the impression here being that the President's call for 300,000 additional volunteers is being responded to throughout the country with an alacrity which promises to secure the whole number in less time than was anticipated when the call was made.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Colonel Charles [illegible] of the Tammany Regiment, who was captured and afterwards released, reports having seen an iron-clad ram and also a small gunboat at Richmond. He says the working classes at Richmond are Union at heart. But the despotism of the Government prohibits discussion of politics except in the newspapers.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The War Department learns that the cavalry expedition sent by Gen King on the 22d, from Fredericksburg, returned last evening. Early yesterday they met and defeated the Confederate cavalry. The rebels one hundred strong were stationed near Canal Church, on the road to Richmond. The cavalry burned their camp and six cars loaded with commissary provisions and tore down the telegraph to Gordonsville. One hour later a large body of Stewart's cavalry came up to attack. These also were defeated and driven across the North Anna river and pursued till within sight of Hanover Junction. Several prisoners and a large number of horses were brought back. The march of 75 miles and the encounter with and defeat of two bodies of cavalry were accomplished in 29 hours, without the loss of a man. The damage done to the Virginia Central R R [illegible] by Gen King's expedition [illegible] has not yet been repaired by the rebels.

DECIMATION [illegible] A British Columbia paper says:

Capt Whitford [illegible] from Stickeen to V[illegible] [illegible] hundred bodies of Indians [illegible] small pox [illegible] In some instances [illegible] by the survivors to burn the dead by heaping brush over them [illegible] and [illegible] fire but it had partially failed [illegible] and the fuel had burned out leaving the half roasted bodies [illegible] with their overpowering exhalations. On two islands Capt Whitford saw [illegible] They had been attacked with the small pox and were left on the island [illegible] a small quantity of food and water at their sides but had quite unexpectedly [illegible] and were subsisting on berries [illegible] subsequently taken off by Indians.

It is impossible to ruin a man who works hard. He is always cheerful and won't be [illegible]

[illegible] Navy [illegible] extraordinary activity which is still going on in all our navy yards [illegible] indication that Government [illegible] At the Brooklyn navy yard between 1000 and 1200 [illegible] men in full employment and [illegible] 12 or 1[illegible] [illegible] The Charlestown navy yard employs some 1100 [illegible] Philadelphia [illegible] What the result of all the activity [illegible] New York Herald.

A countryman armed with a club presented himself before the President [illegible] claims the first prize. He was asked to [illegible] the [illegible] humanity on which he founded his claim.

"I have saved the life of a wolf," replied the countryman. "I might easily have killed him with this bludgeon," and he swung his weapon in the air to the immense discomfort of the President.

"But where is the wolf?" inquired the latter, "what has he done to you?"

"He has just devoured my wife," was the quick reply.

The President reflects an instant, and then says, "My friend, I am of the opinion that you have been sufficiently rewarded."
